December 2013 Police Incidents

Incidents Received: Youngsville Borough Police received several calls from residents on High St., Fifth St. and Coleman Alley about snowmobiles trespassing on private property. An officer did attempt to approach the sleds but could not get them to stop. The president of the county snowmobile club was informed about sleds riding off the designated trails. Police were dispatched to YHS for four false burglar alarms this month. The school district has been cited for multiple false alarm calls. An officer was called to assist another agency for a hit and run that was in the our area. A juvenile at YEMS was cited for making threatening remarks towards a school teacher. A fifteen year old male was taken into custody after he was found to be in possession of marijuana on school property. Police were called to YHS pavilion near Woodard St. for suspicious individuals in the area. During a pat down of the teenagers, drugs were found. Juvenile was later released to a parent. Officer responded to Brown Hill Rd. to assist PSP for a motor vehicle accident (MVA). Police also assisted Youngsville Volunteer Fire Dept. (YVFD) on a structure fire on North Main St. Traffic was detoured to Fiddler Hill. YEMS staff reported a fist fight during school hours between three juvenile males. All three were cited for disorderly conduct. Police are investigating a theft at YEMS. A known juvenile female stole another student's shoes at school. Charges are pending. Police are investigating a juvenile male for harassing other students when he placed his finger through his zipper in his pants and continued after being told to stop. He has been cited for harassment. An eighteen year old male was taken out of YHS by police for a mental health evaluation at Warren General Hospital (WGH) after remarks he was making in the vicinity of other students. Police were dispatched to a MVA on Mill St. An adult female lost control of her pickup truck and crashed into a utility pole at the bottom of Hull Hill and Mill St. The roads were very icy at the time of the crash. The female was taken to WGH by her husband. The vehicle had severe damage. Traffic Arrest: Police filed citations on motorist for speeding, red light violations, no proof of insurance, registration and expired inspection. Also tickets were issued for individuals that failed to respond to parking tickets within the prescribed time.

Youngsville Police Department was again honored by AAA for a Gold Community Safety Award. Departments are selected by AAA for our dedication and success on traffic safety and education with our youth and community.

Frequently Asked Question (FAQ):

How many passengers may a junior driver carry? According to Title 75 of the PA Vehicle Code, Section 1503 C-2.1, a junior driver in his first six months may only carry one additional passenger under 18, unless the additional passengers are immediate family members (siblings). This does not apply if the junior driver is accompanied by a parent or legal guardian.

Report Prepared by: Chief Todd P. Mineweaser

WARNINGS FROM YPD

The Youngsville Police Department will begin citing drivers for crossing traffic to use the Post Office Mail Box, parking the wrong direction and then crossing back into traffic. This is a hazzard and violators will be ticketed.

It is illegal to plow snow from your driveway into and across the streets.
